

BMO 1st Art! celebrates the best of Canada's recent visual arts graduates, from coast to coast. Congratulations to this year's national and regional winners, who demonstrate the excellence and promise of our newest generation of artists.

See the winning works at the 1st Art! 2014 Exhibition, Museum of Contemporary Canadian Art, 952 Queen Street West, Toronto, October 2 – 26, 2014.

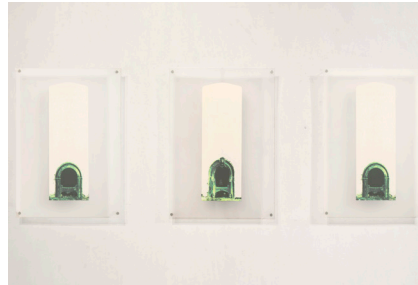

For more information about 1st Art! visit 1stArt.bmo.com or call 416-867-5290

NS

AB

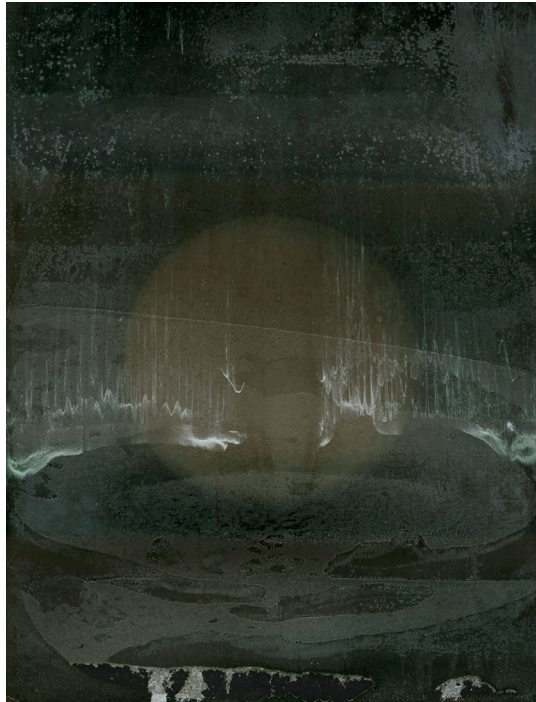

NL

SK

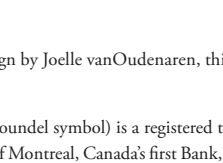

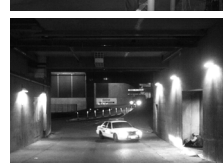

ON

NATIONAL WINNER

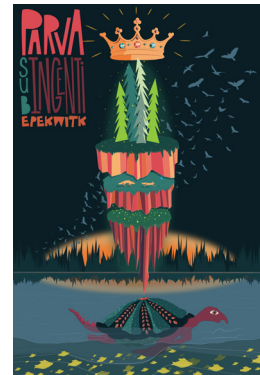

Samuel de Lange, University of Guelph.

BC

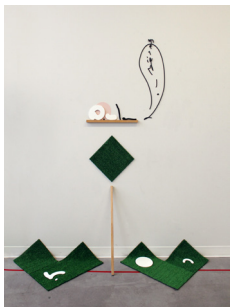

YT

PE

NB

MB

QC

NU

CONGRATULATIONS

- AB Emmanuel Osahor, University of Alberta.
- BC Isaac Thomas, Emily Carr University of Art & Design.
- MB Katrina Marie Mendoza, University of Manitoba.
- NB Sandra Racine, New Brunswick College of Craft & Design.
- NL Maria Mercer, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland.
- NS Adrienna Matzeg, Nova Scotia College of Art & Design.
- NU Elijah Aitaok, Nunavut Arctic College.
- ON Lisa-Marie Bissonnette, OCAD University.
- PE Amy Wells, Holland College.
- QC Stéphanie Auger, Université Laval.
- SK Brandon Sieber, University of Regina.
- YT Lucy Koshan, Yukon School of Visual Arts.

Layout and design by Joelle vanOudenaren, third-year Graphic Design student at the Ontario College of Art & Design.

*BMO (M-bar roundel symbol) is a registered trade-mark of Bank of Montreal, used under licence. Since its inception in 1817 the Bank of Montreal, Canada's first Bank, has compiled a diverse collection of Canadian, American and International art with more than 7,500 works, displayed in offices in North America, the UK, Ireland and China.